SENATE COMMITTEES.

The committee of Republican senators appointed by the caucus a few days ago to arrange the standing committees of that body reported the result of their labors last night, and the same was adopted. This committee consisted of senators Bent, Campbell, White, Tanner, Moffett, Needles and Evans. The important chairmanships are as follows: Judiciary, Hunt; Judicial Department, Clark; Railroads, Fuller; Warehouses, Condee; Finance, Ford; Revenue, Needles; Appropriations, Secret; Municipalities, White; Insurance, Evans; Corporations, Mann; Education, Marshall; Agriculture and Domains, Moffett; Congressional and Senatorial Apportionment, Campbell.

In addition to the chairmanship of the committee on agriculture Senator Moffett is a member of the following committees: Appropriations, State Charitable Institutions, Education, Labor and Manufactures, County and Township Organization, Roads, Highways and Bridges, Congressional and Senatorial Apportionment.

The Real Superintendent

President Garfield's administration will be continued with a very firm hand by James A. Garfield. The man who has no other superintendent will have his money.

The New York Tribune being in an imperative mood proposes the following resolution:

It is resolved by the Southern Democrats that if the negro will "cooper" with all will be worse, and the solid
South will march powerfully to prosper-
ty. Suppose the negro consent,
what will be done with the thirty-five
seats in Congress to which they are entitled? Will the South consent to
"cooper" them, or will it continue to
stool them?

It is said to New York society that the negro will be worse, and the solid
South will march powerfully to prosper-
ty. Suppose the negro consent,
what will be done with the thirty-five
seats in Congress to which they are entitled? Will the South consent to
"cooper" them, or will it continue to
stool them?

Mr. P. F. MORSE, of New York, has written a letter to the Tribune, in which he says: "I am a Southerner, and I have no love for the negro, but I have a strong love for the South, and I do not want to see the South
overrun by the negro."

W. B. Atkinson at the opera house on Saturday night. Admission, only 10cts.

WANTED—A girl to do general house-work, board wages paid. Apply at No. 19 West Prairie street 11 48.

The annual meeting of the Illinois State Temperance Alliance will be held in Springfield on Tuesday, Jan. 16th. The railroads will return delegates at one fifth fare.

ELBOW perfumery and ladies' toilet goods at Walters & Tyler's, the park druggists.

You can save money in buying your Christmas presents in the jewelry line of J. L. Kurnan, No. 30 Merchant street. Dec. 20—d&wtf

New and lovely wall-paper and curtain goods at Abel & Locke's carpet house.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company has just completed a new wrought-iron Pratt bridge, 450 feet long, over Salt Creek, 15 miles north of this city.

C. H. Pomeroy is the sole agent in Decatur for the sale of the celebrated Western cottage organs, and Matheushek piano. Rooms in opera block.

ONLY 10 cents to hear W. B. Atleck at the opera house on Saturday night. His subject will be, "The House that Jack Built."

Ask your dealer for Schroeder's famous Bohemian cigars. They are A. 1.

A REVIVAL influence is beginning to manifest itself among the membership of the U. B. church. The congregations, though not over full, are very attentive and orderly. The interest is manifestly increasing. The settlement of the question of a permanent pastor is doing much to rally the church. The drift of the work is toward deep and permanent results. The public are cordially invited to attend the services each evening.

Our superior buckwheat flour and pure Vermont maple syrup at Peter Ulrich's.

The largest, cheapest and best assort-ment of Corsets can at all times be found at Linn & Scruggs'. Dec. 13—d&wtf

Cash buyers are offered great bargains in carpets at Abel & Locke's establish-ment.

THE special attention of the reader is directed to the change in the "Cheap Store" advertisement in another column. Mr. Moritz paid us a visit this morning and emphatically stated that he will close out his entire stock of goods as quickly as possible and quit the business. He has been among us for nearly two years, and by liberal advertising and fair dealing, has drawn to the firm a liberal share of the public patronage. Read the "ad."

Buy a barrel of choice Michigan apples at Young Bros' grocery store. They are sound and good.

A LARGE lot of Hushsocks and Ottomans will be closed out on our cheap counter at greatly reduced prices. Jan. 6—d&wtf Linn & Scruggs.

SAYS the Bloomington Pantograph of the 11th inst.: "The sale of the Wesleyan University under a trust deed, which was advertised to take place yesterday, was postponed for thirty days, the trustees extending the time, as there seems to be good reason that the money will be raised before the expiration of that time. About $32,000 has been raised in legitimate sub-scriptions, leaving $2,500 still to be ascertained. The soliciting committee will do everything in their power to raise this amount within the next twenty days."

MORNING, do not let your darlings suffer with the whooping-cough. Use Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup and the little sufferers will soon find relief. Only 25 and 50 cents a bottle. 8-d&wtf

PARTIES wasting stoves, glassware or furniture, now is your time. Ashby & Andrews have to move, and must sell the stock off. Oct. 30—d&wtf

BALTIMORE, Jan. 12—Wheat—$1.15; Jan. 13—Feb. $1.20; March.

Going out of Business.

For reasons unnecessary to detail we desire to close out our business in this city, and as this conclusion has only been arrived at within a few days, purchasers will find our stock almost unbroken. No house in the city can show a more complete line, and, as we are in earnest, prices, within reason, will not stand in the way of sales. See our advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

Cheap Store. Sol Moritz & Co.

The Billy Arlington mineral troupe was greeted by a small audience at the opera house last night, and because of the lightness of the crowd and in order to decrease expense, no doubt, the performance was hurried through as quickly as possible, that the company might have time to wash off the burnt cork plaster, get their traps together, and reach the Union depot in time to board the 10:40 east-bound Wabash express train and get away. They will appear at Danville to-night. The performance as a whole was unsatisfactory. There were some features about it that were new and good, but they are not sufficient alone to keep the outfit together very long as an organization. The troupe should be reorganized.

DECATOR has quite a large sprinkling of leveretate smokers, whose names it is not necessary to mention. The dealers know them and so do their personal friends. One lever of the wood here smokes 40 cigars every week, and others no doubt will go him 45 to 50 better. General Grant is said to have smoked 100 cigars in two weeks. He gives away as many as he smokes. He has had a large acquaintance in the community; many will mourn his untimely demise, and all our people will deeply sympathize with the bereaved parents in their great sorrow.

The funeral will occur from the family residence, southwest cor. North Edward and North streets, on to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. H. Buck.

PERSONAL MENTION.

"Vandy" and "Blancy" to-morrow night.

M. T. Stauffer, of Beverly, Ill., is a guest at Priest's Hotel.

BLOOMINGTON Pantograph: Mr. Frank Brown left yesterday for Decatur, where he will go to work in a barber shop.

Rev. T. T. KENDRICK at the opera house next Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Subject, Model Husband. Seats free. 12-3d Hon. Wm. A. Phelps, of Chicago, is in the city on a brief visit to relatives. He will leave for Springfield to-morrow morning.

C. H. Failling, of the banking and grain firm of N. Failling & Son, Macon, was in the city to-day, and broke his fast at the St. Nicholas.

Mrs. Samuel McKeen, of Terre Haute, Ind., who has been in Decatur since before New Year's day, on a visit to her friend, Miss Dolly Millikin, departed for home this morning.

WILLIE O. McNabb, the popular manager of the undertaking firm of E. B. Aungst & Co., is the happiest young Benedict in Decatur to-day. It's a ten-pound boy—born on the morning of the 11th last.

Justice Albert paid Justice Curtis a friendly call this forenoon, and exchanged the compliments of the season with him. While there the visiting justice's ears were greeted by sharp words uttered by Mrs. Tucker, who appears to have a dislike for him. She got no reply from "Uncle Tommy," and he left the room with his hat on.

Surprised.

H. B. Cole and wife were the victims of a genuine surprise last evening at their rooms at the residence of Daniel Dusman, on West Main street. The affair was quietly and successfully arranged by Mr. Will Cole, who formed the company of young ladies and gentlemen in line at the parlors of the St. Nicholas hotel, from whence they proceeded to the home of the unsuspecting parties. Music, both vocal and instrumental, and parlor games were the order of the evening. At a reasonable hour elegant refreshments were served, and wishing Mr. Cole and wife a happy good night the guests departed for home about twelve o'clock.

Those present were Rev. W. H. Prentiss and wife, Misses Mollie Barnes, Ida Bering, Helen Moore, May Rogers, Jessie Rogers, Nellie Durfee, Hattie Hardy, Eliza Hale, Reba Shockley, Alice Freeman, Adele Shelsbarger, Laura Einstein, Lucy Prestley, Fannie Macdonald, Cincinnati, and Means. Will Cole, Bert Hardy, Otto Curtis, Theron Powers, Will Roberts, Herb Bartholomew, Sam Quinn, Chas. Tyler and J. P. Prestley.

MASON COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.

December Term, 1880—Judge Zane Presiding.

TUESDAY, JAN. 11.

Court convened at 1:30 p.m. in the People's Doxey.

The People vs. William Colligan; burglary and larceny; trial by jury; verdict, defendant not guilty, and prisoner discharged.

Same vs. Mack Jones; assault with intent to kill; on motion for cause continued to next term of court.

Same vs. Charles Wilson, Richard Smith and Patrick Ryan; robbery; trial by jury pending.

GRANCY DOCTER.

John Straubhaar vs. Mary Straubhaar; divorce; heard by court, and decree granted.

Court adjourned to 1:30 p.m., Jan. 12th.

CLEARING & CATCHAM, successors to

Baugh, Bluster & Blow, while they possess other notable qualities seem also to be kleptomaniacs, (we believe that is the word), as they have appropriated the thunder of others to hide their unenviable reputation. "One polonaise will buy a good pair of bed blankets" they say. We have heard of these blankets, and if the sticks were taken out of them they might do for horse covers, or if there were any wool in them it might be picked out and something useful made of it. And if LABOR were cheap enough, a purchaser of one of these "woon, heavy winter cloaks at $1.00," might get some one to HOLD IT upright while wearing it.

The mention of these extraordinary bargains by Catcham & Catcham recalls one of the many offered by Bragg, Bluster & Blow, when Catcham or Catcham, we don't know which, was the roaring lion of the concern, when, after enumerating a stock of goods that would have overshadowed that of A. T. Stewart & Co., (although nothing hardly but the leg end of a retail stock from another near town), they named specifically one HUNDRED AND TWENTY THOUSAND pairs of kid gloves at 49c. a pair, and qualified this by saying, "WELL worth one dollar a pair," when in fact their whole stock did not amount to one-tenth part of what they claimed to have had invested in kid gloves alone. When Liss & Berge's advertise goods at a low price the people are sure of getting them. But it is plain to be seen that when Bragg, Bluster & Blow, or their successors, Catcham and Catcham, prostitute the papers to their base uses, the people do not know whether they are going to get plum, pearl, rice or row—the superlative, pearl, row or beef!

LONDON LACE.

The "London Lancet" says: "Many a wife has been saved by the moral courage of the husband, and made a little better by the wife's indulgence. In case of bilious or liver complaints, Price 50 cents; trial bottles 10 cents."
